Connecticut Explored

Connecticut history, one good story after another. Formerly HOG RIVER JOURNAL

UNIQUE in the state for its niche crossover arts and heritage audience, Connecticut Explored (formerly known as Hog River Journal) is a quarterly magazine that explores our state's rich history and cultural heritage.

Now in its 8th year, Connecticut Explored has successfully expanded its focus from the Hartford region to the entire state. Our subscriber base has grown to reach desirable households in every town in Connecticut. Connecticut Explored readers are highly educated and affluent. They are interested in connections from our past to our present and future and have a strong loyalty to Connecticut.

Each quarter 3,600 of the 6,000 copies we print go to our paid subscribers. We send 1,400 to a prospect list drawn from donor and member lists of the state's premier cultural institutions – a reader constituency no other publication delivers. The remaining 1,000 copies are distributed via special promotions or sold in museum shops and on newsstands. Recent reader research tells us that:

- Each issue reaches 11,400 readers
- With paid circulation and unique prospect lists, we reach 25,000 readers over the course of a year
- 71% of our readers have at least a college degree
- The median income of readers is $94,700
- The median age of our readers is 49

Our advertisers know that sometimes it's not about how many readers you reach; it's about who you reach. They recognize that our brand enhances their brand.

Connecticut Explored is a magazine of discovery, characterized by lively, accessible writing grounded in sound research and critical thought. Readers enjoy what each issue offers: in-depth, fascinating articles by historians, journalists, and fellow history buffs, photo essays filled with historical images, tales of the past by ordinary (and extraordinary) folks, stories of intriguing objects from area collections and descriptions of must-see destinations across the state.

Reach affluent arts and culture donors only through Connecticut Explored!

Preparing the File

1. We can accept documents from Quark Xpress, InDesign CS, or Illustrator EPS, and high resolution PDF files that are built as process color (CMYK) with all fonts embedded. Please do not put Photoshop files into Illustrator files (i.e. a nested file). Import all Photoshop EPS and Illustrator EPS files into the page layout program.
2. Scanning resolution should be a minimum of 300 dpi. All files should be converted to CMYK. "Spot Color" should be unchecked in "Colors," unless files are to print with a spot color. All contained image files (TIFFS, EPS) should be converted individually since when it is imported, Quark will also import its colors. No RGB or JPEG files can be used.

Delivering the Ad

Ads may be delivered to our printer in one of three ways; choose the method that is most convenient for you. Do not send your ad to us.

1. E-mail the file with your ad to: macmail@wolfcolorprint.com. Please put Connecticut Explored in the subject line. Your e-mail can be no larger than 5 MB. Include a cc to: Diane Pflugrad Foley at ads@ctexplored.org.
2. Drop your ad at our FTP site. Using Fetch (Mac) or WSFTP (PC), go to the FTP site below and "drag and drop" your file into the site. Any other FTP software may also work. Please compress your files and folders using Stuffit (Mac) or Zip (PC) before sending.
